

PRESS RELEASE

DEPUTIES GRADUATE FROM LAW ENFORCEMENT BASIC TRAINING

Deputy Gavin Inson received several prestigious awards to include: Top Overall Achievement, Top Skills Achievement, and Most Improved Physical Fitness.

Edward J Evers, Academy Director welcomed family, friends and colleagues to the graduation ceremony. The key note speaker, Chief Eric W. Varnau, of the Winchester Police Department gave an inspiring speech on balancing the ever challenging cross between life as a Law Enforcement Officer and one's personal life. His remarks and comments were taken to heart by the 20 graduates who came from 7 local jurisdictions.

Sheriff Charlie Ray Fox, Jr. congratulates all the deputies on their accomplishments and is honored to have each of them as a part of the Fauquier County Sheriff's Office. Their dedication and willingness to serve Fauquier County is the backbone of the Sheriff's Office.
